FREEDOM

to write

Freedom is... Randomised

| The subject [only one!] | The action      | The detail        |
|-------------------------|-----------------|-------------------|
| Freedom is              | realising       | a cause           |
|                         | helping out     | a neutral zone    |
|                         | manoeuvring for | happiness         |
|                         | talking to      | the peace         |
|                         | decluttering    | communities       |
|                         | unburdening     | safe zones        |
|                         | watching over   | shelter           |
|                         | listening to    | smiles            |
|                         | dancing with    | more freedom      |
|                         | imagining       | positivity        |
|                         | pushing towards | affirmation       |
|                         | watching over   | the possible      |
|                         | trusting in     | the attempt       |
|                         | elaborating on  | personal truth    |
|                         | building up     | the truth         |
|                         | supporting      | goodness          |
|                         | being there for | trust in yourself |
|                         | suggesting      | hope              |
|                         | walking with    | peacefulness      |
|                         | being inside    | fresh air         |
|                         | extrapolating   | collaboration     |
|                         | embracing       | honesty           |
|                         | tuning into     | care for others   |
|                         | speaking for    | rights            |
|                         | following       | freedom's truth   |

| warming to      | reciprocation       |
|-----------------|---------------------|
| comforting      | helpfulness         |
| breathing       | breaking restraints |
| being there for | a purpose           |
| bolstering      | moving beyond       |
| summoning up    | clearing hurdles    |
| registering     | contentment         |
| striving for    | protection          |
| accentuating    | a goal              |
| urging          | trust in others     |