

Hand Poems

Here's one final example to help you write a Palm Poem. It is based on the names of the fingers, referred to earlier. Each stanza is just a possible beginning:

*Jupiter,
you point out people
and pick noses,
scratch at surfaces
and wag in anger...*

*Saturn,
you signal marriage
and that's about all...*

*Mercury,
my cartoon finger,
Pinky,
you are pretentious drinking tea....*
